Pair of Insane Robbers Grab Guards, Flee Lima Hospital

Kidnap Third Man During Wild Flight

State-wide Alarm Out After Trail Is Lost in Cleveland

LIMA, O. AP)—Two insane robbers—threatening to cut the throats of two kidnaped guards—forced their way out of Lima State Hospital Monday.

In their wild escape, the two men kidnaped a third man.

They left the third hostage tied to a park tree in Cleveland early today. Police later found the kidnaped man's car at Middleburg Heights, a suburb south of the park.

The Ohio Highway Patrol broadcast a state-wide alarm and hospital officials described the men as unpredictable and dangerous.

Authorities feared the insane escapees could start another robbery-murder orgy like that staged by Murl Daniels and James West a few years ago.

The crazed criminals kidnaped a man at Middlepoint, 25 miles from the escape scene, forcing him to drive them to Cleveland. They tied him to a tree in a metropolitan park and drove away.

Dr. R. E. Bushong, superintendent at Lima, said the two inmates who fled had been good patients but should be treated now as "dangerous."

They are Neville Slusher, 24, and Floyd Keith, 23, both of Cincinnati and both being treated for schizophrenia—split personality.

Became Violent

Dr. Bushong said Keith was sentenced to Ohio Penitentiary for robbery and transferred to Lima when he became violent.

Slusher, the doctor continued, was sentenced for burglary and larceny and was sent to Lima a year ago when he developed suicidal tendencies. The superintendent said Slusher had improved and had been scheduled for return to a reformatory.

The pair—brandishing knives—grabbed two guard-attendants, Wilbur Hardin and Ira McBride. By threatening to slit the guards' throats, the pair forced gatemen to let them outside the walls.

Once outside, they left McBride but forced Hardin to drive his car for the getaway. Hardin was abandoned when his car broke down at Middlepoint and Ralph Warnecke, 27, was kidnapped there.

Warnecke, a toolmaker, was forced to drive his 1950 green Chevrolet sedan to Cleveland.

When they arrived at Metropolitan Park in Rocky River, they threw Warnecke out of the car, tied him to a tree and drove away.

Warnecke later got loose, and stumbled to the home of Mrs. Gertrude Mandley, 43. She gave him water and coffee and called police.

Said Not Serious

Police took him to St. John's hospital suffering from swollen hands and legs, the result of tight ropes. Police said Warnecke was not in serious condition.

Records of the State Welfare Department in Columbus show Slusher had been serving a 1-15 year sentence in Mansfield Reformatory for grand larceny and burglary. He had been diagnosed as a dementia praecox and admitted to Lima previously March 17, 1948. On Nov. 5, 1948, he was considered recovered and sent back to Mansfield. He was admitted again June 15, 1951.

Keith was sentenced to Mansfield Reformatory Nov. 25, 1949, for 10-25 years on an armed robbery charge. Last Aug. 17 he was transferred to Ohio Penitentiary because he would not abide by reformatory discipline. He was transferred to Lima last Nov. 17.

BAND LEADER WED

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Rhumba king Xavier Cugat and his vocalist, Abbe Lane, flew to the Dominican Republic today for a three-day honeymoon. The 52-year-old musician and his 20-year-old singer were married Monday in a five-minute ceremony. It was Cugat's third marriage and Miss Lane's first.

Nunan Silent; Probers Scan New Targets

More Charges Of Mishandled Tax Cases on Agenda

WASHINGTON (AP)—House tax scandal investigators switched to new targets today after fruitless efforts to get former Revenue Commissioner Joseph D. Nunan Jr. to talk about his personal finances.

Three, possibly four, new charges of mishandled tax cases were reported next on the agenda of the House ways and means investigating subcommittee.

What the new probe involves was not disclosed. But it was expected to be in the nature of a "cleanup" operation in the committee's long run on the tax scandal circuit.

What was considered to be the last major phase of the committee's inquiry into Revenue Bureau irregularities wound up with a minimum of fanfare late Monday with Nunan in the witness chair.

Nunan "respectfully" declined to answer questions about any of the financial transactions traced to him by agents between 1945 and 1950—including $161,609 in cash and checks which agents could not pin to any indentifiable source.

Pulitzer Prize Awarded Novel 'Caine Mutiny'

Play, "The Strike," St. Louis Post-Dispatch Also Win Honors

NEW YORK (AP —His novel of the wartime Navy, "The Caine Mutiny," has brought Herman Wouk the annual Pulitzer Prize for fiction.

The stage drama award has gone to Joseph Kramm for his play, "The Shrike," a story of an estranged husband and wife set in the psychiatric ward of a city hospital.

In the newspaper field, the St. Louis Post-Dispatch's exposure of corruption in the Internal Revenue Department has won that daily its fifth Pulitzer Prize, the most awarded to a single newspaper.

John M Hightower, foreign affairs reporter of The Associated Press, received the annual prize for international reporting for "the sustained quality of his coverage of news of international affairs" during 1951.

Selections for the 1952 Pulitzer awards were announced Monday by trustees of Columbia University. The awards in various fields of creative endeavor were established by Joseph Pulitzer, the late publisher, in a bequest to Columbia.

Others cited were the San Francisco Chronicle's George De Carvalho; Anthony Leviero, of the New York Times; and Louis La Coss, of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Grand Jury To Probe Fatal Knifing

No Charges To Be Filed in Leedom Case, Says Prosecutor

The fatal knifing of James O. Leedom will be studied by the Grand Jury in its regular May session, County Prosecuting Attorney Ralph E. Carhart announced today.

Leedom died early Monday morning in City Hospital from peritonitis as a result of a knife wound received April 28.

May 15 has been set as the date for consideration of the case. No charges will be filed against anyone until that time, Carhart said. The Grand Jury will subpena witnesses in connection with the stabbing and it will be left up to the Grand Jury to decide if charges should be filed, Carhart said.

Mystery Witness Sought

A mystery eye-witness to the stabbing was being sought today by city police.

Carhart said police were following up a rumor that one of the neighbors of the Leedoms at the Veterans Housing Project had seen Leedom stabbed in the stomach.

His wife, Mrs. Wilma M. Leedom, is being investigated in connection with the stabbing. She was brought to Carhart's office Monday morning but she refused to say anything about the stabbing on advice of her lawyer, Edwin B. Spohn. She was allowed to return to her home, Unit 16 at the housing project located just west of Lincoln Park.

It was revealed today that Mrs. Leedom filed divorce proceedings against her husband in October of last year. The case was dropped April 26 because of a lack of prosecution. She alleged "gross neglect of duty and extreme cruelty."

Action Dropped

An order was placed on the divorce petition March 21 to the effect that if no action were taken on it by April 26, then it would be automatically dropped.

Two city police plainclothesmen were assigned to the case Monday. They continued today to question residents of the Veterans Housing Project but Carhart said little progress was being made.

Leedom was the father of three boys, Michael, 11; George, 9; and Charles, 7. He served with the Army in Europe and was wounded in fighting in France. He was a bartender at the Triangle Bar and Grill at 543 W. Center St.

No official report of the stabbing was made by city police after it occurred. They considered the wound minor and Leedom refused to file any charges. They said there were apparently no other witnesses to the knifing.

Found Near Home

When police went out to investigate they found Leedom walking around in the vicinity of his house. They took him to the hospital and questioned his wife, who refused to say anything about the stabbing.

Neighbors of Leedoms said the knifing took place after a family quarrel.

Investigation of the stabbing is being directed by police captains in the absence of Chief Tom Coon, who has been in Washington since late March attending a 12-week

Voters Flock To Polls To Pick Party Nominees and Delegates

Rationing Of Gasoline Is Considered

Officials Disagree On Course of Action If Oil Strike Continues

DENVER (AP)—A major part of the nation's oil industry ended its first strike bound week today with federal government officials apparently in disagreement over the prospects for gasoline rationing.

Most seriously effected so far was air transport, both civilian and military. Motorists, however, were beginning to feel the pinch in some area.

An encouraging gimmer came from California where the Independent Union of Petroleum Workers settled with two companies.

In an interview in New Orleans James K. Knudson, administrator of the Defense Transportation Administration, warned:

"If the oil strike goes on a few more days, we may have to put some restrictions on civilian transportation."

Secretary of the Interior Oscar Chapman said the government is not planning on national rationing of automobile gasoline, despite scattered shortages.

Chapman said he agreed with Bruce K. Brown, deputy administrator of the Petroleum Administration for Defense, that it would take too long to set up a rationing program.

A 30 per cent cut in gasoline for civil aviation purposes was or-

Russell Given Slight Edge In Florida

Promises No Part In Walkout During Debate With Kefauver

MIAMI, Fla (AP)—Sen. Richard B Russell's declaration that he will not lead a Southern revolt over civil rights at the Democratic National Convention was the big news today in Florida's first presidential preference primary in 20 years.

This was the first time the Georgian had said flatly that he will take no part in a walk-out such as the one pulled by some Southern leaders at the 1948 Convention.

Voters went to the polls to make a choice between Russell and tall, slow-talking Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee who already has won Democratic popularity contests in eight states.

A record-smashing vote of almost 800,000 was expected. Russell was regarded as a slight favorite to give Kefauver a licking in the South's only Presidential Preference contest.

Called Pillar of Respectability

Banker Faces $450,000 Embezzlement Charge

PERTH AMBOY, N.J. (AP)—A banker, described as a pillar of respectability in the community, is accused of embezzling more than $450,000.

The complaint against 59-year-old William C. Horley was entered Monday by the First Bank and Trust Co., where he was vice president at an $8,500-a-year salary.

Middlesex County Prosecutor Alex Eber said early today that a series of bad investments engulfed Horley, whom he referred to as a "very generous man.

"He liked to help people. He made personal loans with bank funds," Eber said of the bank vice president.

Shock and surprise at the embezzlement news was registered by church and community officials who held the mild-mannered Horley in high esteem. He is warden of St. Peter's Episcopal Church and chairman of its trust fund.

Horley, married and the father of three children, took an active part in civic affairs.

After a five-hour quizzing which ended early today, Eber said that in order to cover up for the shortages resulting from bad loans, Horley then took some of the bank's money and speculated in the stock market in attempts to recoup the loss. This stock market dabbling also turned sour and Horley found himself deeper and deeper in the red, the county prosecutor continued.

Approximately $150,000 of the loss may be recovered, Eber said, adding that the embezzling operation began possibly about three years ago.

Early Voting Heavy in City, Check Shows

Record for Primary Expected By Election Observers

Early voting in the city was heavy, a mid-morning check of voting places revealed.

Some election workers reported the voting heavier than in any previous primary election.

Voting in rural precincts, however, was light. Some observers believed the good weather, which helped the city vote, kept farmers in the fields.

Nine city precincts checked at 10 30 a.m. reported 447 Republican votes cast and 193 Democratic votes.

All the polling places checked report the voting is heavy in comparison with previous primaries.

Election observers stuck to earlier forecasts of a record 11,000 vote in the county. The total would be some 2,000 above the last presidential primary in 1948.

Mrs. Hazel Little, a precinct judge at the W. Center St. fire station, reported the voting was "good" there, much better than the last primary.

Mrs. Effie Thompson, presiding judge at the Marion Armory on W. Church St., precinct 4 B, reported the voting was better than usual. She said there were a large number of early morning voters.

Mrs. Harold Hall at the Central Christian Church on Mt. Vernon Ave., precinct 8 B, reports voting is very heavy. She said the time involved in marking the ballot was accounting for a considerable lag in voting.

Voting places close at 6:30 p.m. and then begins the task of counting the votes and tabulating them. Most precinct workers expect the job to take most of the night.

Early returns are not expected before 9:30 at the earliest and possibly much later.

FIVE-DAY FORECAST

Seasonably warm and mostly fair weather Wednesday through Sunday. Normal maximum 66 north to 73 south. Normal minimum 46 north to 49 south. Cooler Wednesday. Warmer by week end. Showers Thursday and again about Sunday will total about one-third to one-half inch.

Ditcher Cuts Phone Cable

Disrupts Service In Marion Area

Repairs were completed early this morning to a severed Ohio Bell Telephone Co. cable south of Marion which disrupted long distance telephone service in northwestern Ohio for more than 13 hours.

The underground cable was cut at about 1:30 p.m. Monday by a farmer who was using a ditcher to install tiles on his farm, located about two miles west of Norton, near the Marion County-Delaware County line. Repair crews from Columbus were sent to the scene and worked on the line until 2:45 a.m. today.

Also affected in addition to long distance telephone circuits, were telegraph wires and news service wires serving newspapers and radio stations in the area.

All long distance calls were rerouted, so that service was not cut off entirely, according to A. J. Firestone, test board manager at Ohio Bell's repeater station in Big Island. The affected area txended north to Toledo and Sandusky and south to Columbus, Firestone said.

HIGH SCHOOL BURNS

BOWLING GREEN, O. (AP)—The high school building at nearby Milton Center burned down early today. It was valued at $350,000. C. S. Harkness, Wood County superintendent of schools, said the trend toward consolidation of small schools probably would mean the Milton Center high school students would be sent to another nearby school. Cause of the fire, which began about midnight, was not determined.

TAFT PINS DOWN WEDEMEYER'S HELP. Sen. Robert A. Taft (left) pins a "Taft button" on retired Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, newly-appointed national chairman of the Citizens' Committee for Taft. Wedemeyer said that Gen. Douglas MacArthur personally asked him to assume a political role and that MacArthur's "call is a clear indication that he is supporting Senator Taft."

Wilson Rips Wage Board Steel Policy

Recommended Wage Hike Way Too High, House Probers Told

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former mobilization chief Charles E. Wilson today described the Wage Stabilization Board recommendations in the steel case as going "well beyond the limits of proper wage and price stabilization policy."

Wilson told a House labor committee that steelworkers were entitled to "no more" than a nine cents an hour "catch-up wage increase" to bring them in line with increases of working in other industries.

Wilson said too that it was "not realistic" to request the steel industry to absorb the wage increase without raising costs.

The WSB recommended a package increase of 26 cents an hour for steel workers who now average a little under $2 an hour. The package included direct pay increases and additional benefits in the way of vacation, holiday and other allowances.

Wilson, who quit as mobilization chief in protest against administration handling of the steel case, was the first witness at a broad investigation by the House labor committee of operations of the Wage Stabilization Board.

Wilson told the legislators "the precedent set by the steel recommendations" was most important because it could lead to other wage increases.

And to increase costs by a general policy of wage increases at this time, Wilson said, would tend only "to produce either further inflation or a drop in employment."

Wilson went on to say he felt the battle to hold the stabilization line had ben successful until March. The WSB made its recommendations in the steel case on March 20.

He said wages had kept pace with the cost of living and that consumer retail prices were only two per cent higher while wholesale prices were in some respects lower.

He said the board's recommendations put steelworkers "out in front" on the wage catch-up formula established in 1951.

RIDGWAY LEAVING MONDAY

TOKYO (AP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme United Nations commander and head of the United States forces in Japan, will leave Monday enroute to his new assignment as Supreme Allied Commander in Europe. An Army announcement said he would leave the United States for France May 24 to take the post left vacant by the resignation of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower.

Primary News Service To Start At 9:30 Tonight

Arrangements have been completed for The Star's primary election phone news service, scheduled to start at 9:30 tonight. Everybody is invited to phone for reports of the vote trend in Marion County on county and district contests and also the county's vote on presidential convention delegates.

The phone news service will not start until 9:30 since it is not expected that any precinct reports will be received until that time at the earliest. The election board predicts that the first returns may not come until 9:30 and probably considerably later.

The Star's phone number is 2-1101.

Federal Judge Says Gambling Tax Invalid

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A six-month-old federal law requiring gamblers to buy a $50 tax stamp was declared unconstitutional today by U.S. District Judge George A. Welsh.

Welsh ruled the law was a police measure enacted by Congress under the guise of a tax bill.

The decision was handed down on an appeal by Joseph Kahriger, 36, one of seven men facing trial on charges of failing to buy the stamp.

HIGH WINDS HIT OHIO

By The Associated Press

Strong winds ripped through central and east portions of Ohio last night, causing several thousand dollars worth of damage. The rain-wind storms climaxed one of the hottest May 5ths on record. Alliance, Columbus and East Liverpool all felt effects of the heavy winds.

Hot Contests Prevalent In State Races

Taft-Stussen And Kefauver-Bulkley Contests in Spotlight

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio voters trooped to the polls today to nominate candidates for everything ranging from national convention delegate to county committeeman.

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown estimated 1,500,000 Ohioans would cast ballots in the primary election. Brown predicted a 3-2 ratio vote, including 900,000 Republican ballots and 600,000 Democrats.

This would be about 214,000 more than in the 1948 record presidential primary and about 450 more than voted in the 1950 primary. The 1948 vote was 1,286,721.

With polls opening at 6.30 a.m., Eastern Standard Time, and closing 12 hours later, a slow tabulation of results was in prospect because of the many names on the over-burdened state and national ballot.

While interest appeared to be centered on the race for presidential delegates in both parties, hot contests were prevalent in many state races.

The Republican battle for the nomination for governor gave voters the choice of three persons: State Sen. Roscoe H. Walcutt, Senate majority leader, of Columbus; former Gov. Thomas J. Herbert of Cleveland, and Charles P. Taft of Cincinnati, brother of the senator.

Lausche Unopposed

Democratic incumbent Gov. Frank J. Lausche is un-opposed for renomination to a fourth term.

In the Democratic column, the bitterest fight is for the U.S. Senatorial nomination. The four contenders are State Rep. James M. Carney, minority leader of the House of Representatives, Michael V. DiSalle, former mayor of Toledo and former director of the Office of Price Stabilization; George L. Mark of Cleveland, and John W. Donahey of Hudson, O., son of the late Ohio governor and U.S. Senator Vic Donahey.

Republican incumbent John W. Bricker of Columbus is unopposed for renomination.

Ohioans will ballot for nominations for 23 district congressmen for the first time. The one congressman-at-large post has been eliminated and a new 23rd congressional district created. Rep. George Bender, the congressman-at-large, is seeking the GOP nomination in the new district.

New Boundaries

Many congressional districts have had their boundaries changed since the election two years ago. Twenty-one of the 23 congressmen are seeking renomination. Fifty-six others are challenging them for nomination.

Of the 77 candidates, 35 are Democrats, 41 Republicans and one an independent.

In other state races, Mayor

Drive for All 56 Delegates

Taft Backers Look For Impressive Ohio Win

COLUMBUS (AP) — Backers of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio put on a sustained drive today in an effort to roll up a huge ballot total for his 56 Republican presidential nominating delegate candidates.

Ten are running in statewide races and 46 in district contests.

A forecast of cloudy and cooler weather seemed unlikely to affect an expected record vote of 1,500,000 in a primary where Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee is the chief national figure on the Democratic side.

Taft's backers, confidently predicting they will elect at least 52 of the 56 GOP convention delegates to be chosen, sought an impressive total for their slate which could be cited elsewhere as demonstrating that Ohio is soundly behind Taft in his bid for the GOP nomination.

Makes No Predictions

Kefauver, busy trying to win from Sen. Richard B. Russell of Georgia, a Florida popularity test which may assay his strength in the South, made no personal predictions on the Ohio outcome.

Ohio Democratic party leaders are backing a 53-vote delegate slate nominally pledged to former Sen. Robert J. Bulkley as a "favorite son"—a device calculated to keep the group unfettered to any major candidate.

Delaware Dam Operation To Be Explained

Rep. McGregor Arranges Meeting After Inspection

DELAWARE (AP) — Rep. J. Harry McGregor (R) of Ohio said Monday Army Engineers will explain to the public at a meeting in Columbus Thursday how they operate the Delaware Dam.

McGregor, of West Lafayette, arranged a meeting among the engineers, State Department of Natural Resources, and farmers and sportsmen after protests were received concerning operation of the big conservation dam north of Delaware on the Olentangy river.

Farmers in the area have asked permission to lease some 1,000 acres of unflooded land bordering the artificial lake for crops. But the Army, which leases the land to the Department of Natural Resources, said it could not be leased to a third party.

Sportsmen, particularly fishermen, have complained that when the dam's gates are opened water floods over the bank of the stream below the dam. Then when the gates are closed, the water recedes into the stream banks and leaves hundreds of fish marooned to die on dry land.

The hearing is scheduled for 10 a.m., Thursday, in Room 1106, State Office Building in Columbus

Why Worry

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK

IS LIFE TOO MUCH FOR YOU? Has care got you down?

Since this is National Health Week, now is as good a time as any to figure what to do about keeping all your marbles.

Statisticians estimate that one out of every 12 children born in America today will spend some part of his life in a mental institution. This is a frightening fact.

Going to a psychiatrist isn't the solution. There are only about 6,000 psychiatrists in the country. Even if patients kept their couches warm around the clock, there are too few of these professional mind probers to listen to all the people who want to tell their troubles. Also, getting to their ear is a bit expensive for the average purse.

What is the answer? Well, let's look at the situation, and consider the possible remedies.

There are two ways to go through life—enjoying yourself to death, or worrying yourself to death Most people are firmly convinced they will never die of pleasure, and as a matter of fact the very idea frightens them. So they slowly worry themselves crazy, or fret themselves gradually into a grave, borne down by the weight of accumulated disappointments and frustrated ambitions.

* * *

THE BIG FALLACY of the human race is that it is spendthrift of its happiness, but hoards worry privately like a miser.

This is all wrong. You should, of course, share your happiness; but, equally, you should share your worries. A happiness grows with sharing; a worry diminishes.

We've had share-the-work programs and share-the-wealth programs. What we need now is a good, nation-wide, share-your-worries program. People plagued by similar emotional, physical or financial woes could band together on the same principle as the members of Alcoholics Anonymous, a signally successful organization.

Some folks might be reluctant to share their private worries with neighbors or friends. In that case they could team up with strangers who knew nothing about them personally but suffered the same problems.

The advantage of these share-your-worries clubs is that they would put each worry in its proper perspective. The thing about your own worry is that it always looks bigger to you than it does to everybody else.

* * *

TELL YOUR WORRY to another person and, somehow, it doesn't loom quite so large even to you. And the one you told it to? He can take your worry and a dozen other worries like it from a dozen other people and go right on enjoying his meals as he did before.

It is easy to laugh at the other fellow's problems. So if everybody in the world told his worries around, soon everybody would have something to laugh about.

That's the virtue of a national share-the-worries program. Once a man has something to laugh at—somebody else's woes—it is easier for him to see how silly it is to lose his mind on the treadmill of his own despairs.

Findlay Packer Big Operator In Horsemeat

FINDLAY, O. (AP)—A former purchasing agent Monday testified he bought large quantities of horsemeat for a Findlay meat packing firm whose officials are charged with sale of horsemeat disguised as beef.

On trial is Joseph C. Kirchner, owner of the Buckeye Packing Co., formerly known as Kay Brand Packing Co. He faces 60 charges ranging from bribery to adulteration of food products.

Eight other packikng company employes also were indicted on similar charges

Louis Wolf of Port Clinton, one time purchasing agent for the Findlay firm, said he bought an estimated 30,000 pounds of horsemeat weekly for the firm over a two-year period starting in March, 1947.

He said he made trips throughout the Midwest where he purchased barrels of horsemeat

Wolf said the meat was consigned to fictitious names in North Baltimore, Arcadia and North Findlay, all near the Findlay plant.

Wolf also said that to avoid detection, a quantity of horsemeat was transferred from the Kay Brand plant to a Findlay ice plant. The trial continues today.

From 1930 to 1950 the average weight of 29 automobiles produced by 15 manufacturers increased from 3,500 to 3,750 pounds.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slowdown of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

You may not smile when you order—but you will when we serve your food

It happens every day. Men and women, busy, worried sometimes, order a meal, drum on the table, then when their order is served you see a broad smile. They like what they see, and when they finish their meal you see a broad contented smile. This is a fine place to eat, any time.

Boards Study Crawford Co. School Plans

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — School boards from Leesville, North Robinson and Whetstone will hold a joint meeting tonight at North Robinson School to attempt to solve their school deficiency problems, Crawford County School Supt. S. K. Sollars announced here today.

The meeting was arranged after a conference, Friday, in Columbus between the Ohio High School Board and representatives of the three boards, along with county board of education representatives and Supt. Sollars.

The state board, which has been reviewing the charters of the three schools, has allowed the boards one week to arrive at some definite program to correct their deficiencies, Supt. Sollars said.

A consolidation program has been suggested unofficially by the state board, which also has recommended that a population and consolidation study of the situation be made by Ohio State University or some other recognized agency.

The proposed consolidation has been under consideration for several months but residents of the three districts have indicated, through petitions circulated throughout their districts, their opposition to any consolidation program.

County school board members and Supt. Sollars have indicated that it will be up to the individual boards to initiate any consolidation program.

Unless some feasible program is worked out by the three boards, the state board has indicated that permanent charters on the schools may be revoked, informed sources reported.

11 Cases Set For Crawford Jury

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS—At least 11 cases are expected to be considered by the Crawford County grand jury which opened its session here today, Prosecutor Leo J. Scanlon reported.

Cases to be submitted to the jury include: Joseph Fairchild, 26, of Galion, non-support; Shelby Settles, 26, of Bucyrus, and Harold Junior Pogue, 21, of Mansfield, auto larceny; John Dudley, 35, of Shelby, non-support; William Dunaway, 24, of Galion, grand larceny; Albert Mills of near Mansfield, conversion of funds; James Pierce, 23, of Shelby, non-support; Raymond Black, 22, of near Galion, unlawfully gaining carnal knowledge of a minor; Lloyd Ginter, 24, John Sargeant, 26, and Carl Lovell, 20, all of Bucyrus, breaking and entering and auto larceny.

The last session of the grand jury was the longest in the county's history. It lasted three months during which the jury investigated conditions at the county home. Harold Dinkel, 45, ousted home superintendent, and County Commissioner Walter Sargei, 59, were sentenced to indeterminate terms in the Ohio penitentiary when they pleaded guilty to embezzlement and grand larceny charge. Sargel's brother, Arthur Sargel of Galion, also indicted by the jury in connection with the home investigation, was placed on probation. Dinkel's wife, Sarah, 42, ousted home matron, was fined $50 on a charge of inmate torture.

Plan Opening Mt. Gilead Swimming Pool

(Special to The Star)

MT. GILEAD — Members of the Mt. Gilead recreation board are now taking applications for help at the recreation center this summer according to Sid Tennant, president of the board.

Applications for the positions of pool manager, life guard, cashier and basketkeeper, a pool helper and a playground director will be received by Tennant until May 5. The pool is scheduled to open May 30 and will remain open until Sept. 1. The pool manager will receive a salary of $700, lifeguard, a salary of $450 and playground director, $600, payable weekly for the three month season.

Painting of the inside and outside of the bathouse and pool is now underway. A total of 7,463 student tickets 1,702 adult tickets and 102 season tickets were sold last year.

Woman Killed Near Ashley

Husband Seriously Injured in Crash

Special To The Star

ASHLEY—An Indianapolis, Ind. woman was killed and her husband seriously injured when the car in which they were riding crashed into a tree at the south edge of Ashley Monday.

Mrs. Ida Stillerman was pronounced dead on arrival at Jane Case Hospital in Delaware at noon Monday. Her husband, Louis, 51, was suffering from facial injuries, a possible fractured skull and possible internal injuries. He was reported in serious condition in the Delaware hospital.

The accident occurred at about 11 p.m. Monday at a detour where Route 42 is being repaired and one-lane traffic is maintained. The Stillerman car, going north, attempted to stop to avoid hitting another car which was already stopped for the detour. The car skidded 55 yards and struck a tree, patrolmen reported.

Stillerman is associated with the Stillerman Electric Supply Co. of Indianapolis. The couple was going to Cleveland.

Mrs. Stillerman's body is at the Doty Funeral Home in Delaware. Both were taken to the hospital in the Doty ambulance. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

Concerts Scheduled Thursday at Palace Theater

Six School Students To Play With Navy Band

Six local high school musicians have been given the opportunity of appearing with The United States Navy Band when the band presents a concert Thursday afternoon at the Palace Theater.

The young people will play one number with the band. Homer Huffman, supervisor of instrumental music in the city schools and director of the Harding High School band, is scheduled to direct the Navy Band in one of its compositions.

The six local band members, elected by a vote of the entire band membership, are Eddie Porter, sousaphone, Ermin Seckel and Don Couch, clarinets, Tom Tatham and Roger Fick, trumpets, and Clyde Masters, trombone.

Their appearance with the Navy Band will be at the 3 o'clock matinee performance, which has been scheduled to accommodate city school pupils. An earlier matinee, at 1:30, was arranged primarily for county school pupils. The afternoon concerts have been arranged to be especially suited for high school students.

The band is on its annual tour, approved by the President, and its appearance here is under sponsorship of the Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce. Director of the band is Lt. Comdr. Charles Brendler, U.S.N.

Tickets are on sale at the theater box office, at various downtown business establishments, and by Jaycee members.

And a Man Lay Dying

TO SAY the least, Marion police authorities followed a strange course in connection with the stabbing of James Owen Leedom, which occurred on April 26 and resulted in his death a week later.

During that entire week not a word about the stabbing was given out for publication.

One explanation given, and it certainly fails to justify or excuse the manner in which this case was handled by the police, is that at first the stab wound was regarded as trivial and superficial and not sufficiently serious to necessitate informing the public about the incident.

On that point let it be clearly understood that the duty and obligation of police authorities is to let the community they are serving know about any and all acts of violence and lawlessness occurring in that community. The people are entitled to such information without delay as a matter of public safety and their own personal security. In that category belongs any attack upon the person of anyone in the community, even though the police may regard it as trivial and unimportant. In fact, it's not the job of the police to make any such appraisal. It is a duty of the courts and sometimes, as was unfortunately true in this case, for the coroner.

Bluebirds Overhead

IN THE White House order to steel industry spokesmen to give United Steel Workers what its negotiators demand or else, there is a significant note of optimism.

In the closing passage of the order, President Truman declared to the representatives of industry and labor: "All of you are more prosperous than you have ever been in the history of this country."

Then, warming to the subject, the President points out that the existing economic situation and the one which he believes will grow out of it are without precedent in the history of the world.

This amounts to saying that the United States stands at the pinnacle of economic success for all time. In fact, Mr. Truman said at one point in his order to the steel industry to give in or to give up: "I don't think any of you can complain about the situation of the economy at the present time."

This point of view is at marked variance with a point of view expressed by economists, taxpayers, business analysts and by the government itself in some of its outgivings of wisdom. The discrepancy marks a curious situation.

Is it possible that the Chief Executive of the United States actually believes unprecedented prosperity and hope of its indefinite continuation has been achieved out of a World War ending in 1945, an uneasy interval of false peace and a resumption of armed hostilities in 1950?

Is it possible that the No. 1 citizen of the United States has so far forgotten economic realities as not to distinguish what the depreciation of money has done to people relying on savings to see them through?

Is it to be believed that Mr. Truman no longer sees the connection between death and destruction in Korea and the outpouring of billions of dollars' worth of wealth to shore up the tottering structure of peace?

Has that World War II story about the war worker on the bus hoping there would be no peace because he never had it so good and being reminded by another passenger that her son had been killed in combat been told with a straight face in the White House?

All Pure on the Potomac

IN AN address to the National Civil Service League and the Society for Personal Administration late last week, Harry Truman hit an all-time low of distortion.

His opponents, he charged, were filling the air with "downright lies about corruption in his administration. He then suggested that people who talk about thievery, sale of favors and such men as Alger Hiss are undermining the Bill of Rights.

Since that strikes millions of Americans in a tender spot, Mr. Truman's warped indictment undoubtedly will be answered with strong convictions.

Two points of rebuttal are especially strong.

It was not a case of mistaken identity when the Whittaker Chambers expose turned up Alger Hiss with red on his hands. Had it not been for the astute handling of the whole Communist scandal, half a dozen others like Hiss would have been turned up.

There was neither mistaken identity nor falsehood in the scandals which broke over the Bureau of Internal Revenue and the Reconstruction Finance Corp. nor was there any mistaken identity when Mr. Truman, himself, finally became so disturbed he asked Newbold Morris to come to Washington to investigate the mess and start a cleanup.

Mr. Morris did not last long—not because there was nothing to investigate but because there was no one willing to be investigated. When he was fired it became a certainty that the Truman administration would brazen out its record of being easy on easy-money operators—as easy as the Roosevelt administration had been on Communists.

It will take a lot of distorting to get away with it.

Truman Vs. Constitution

By George E. Sokolsky

President Seeks Power Where It Does Not Exist

I HAVE BEEN receiving mail on the subject of the Constitution, and I find that some of the writers speak of the Constitution as a dogma and they ask whether human welfare is to be sacrificed to dogma.

It cannot be incidental that this question is raised. For many generations, the youth of this country have been getting a dose of the concept that whatever is dogmatic is per se wrong; that there are no absolutes about anything, not even the Ten Commandments. These generations of young people were taught that the economic basis for society and life is paramount; that all the developments of the human mind are the product of the economic environment of the moment. Therefore, the Constitution is not basic but is a product of the economic environment of the United States in 1787. That environment has since changed; therefore, the Constitution is inadequate today.

The fallacy of this doctrine is that the very existence of the United States derives from the Constitution. The Civil War was fought over the right to secede from the Union, a right which was claimed because the Constitution is a contract among the States, each one agreeing to abide by it. It was not adopted by the United States but by each state. Should the Constitution fall, the alternative to our form, representative government by and for free individuals, can only be some form of totalitarian government for an enslaved people.

163-Year Test

The Constitution has proved over 163 years to be a practical document; in fact, it has survived all other similar arrangements, including the unwritten British Constitution, which is really an accumulation of habits, traditions and acts of legislation.

The men who wrote the Constitution were concerned with power. There was no antipathy to England, the mother country; there was profound objection to the use of economic and political power to reduce a people to bondage. Therefore, those who labored over the Constitution, practical men, who had themselves fought in the Revolutionary War, devoted themselves to the question of power and determined that they would set up a form of government in which no one would rule.

Alexander Hamilton wrote:

". . . history will teach us . . . that of those men who have overturned the liberties of republics, the greatest number have begun their career by paying an obsequious court to the people; commencing demagogues, and ending tyrants."

Actually, it is more evil to corrupt the law, to subvert the law, than to violate the law.

Murder, Inc., violated the law. These men engaged in murder for hire. Some of them murdered each other; some of them were punished by the courts. Their acts in no manner weakened the law against murder.

* * *

ON THE OTHER HAND the Kefauver Investigation opened our eyes to the effort of gangsters to corrupt the law, to use wiles and devices to make the law ineffective or even to remove the law altogether, weakening the state and reducing the resistance of the people to general immorality. This covert activity, evil in itself, produces national disease because not only are officials corrupted and the law lessened, but the people become subservient to those who obtain power by a collusion of gangster and official.

Mr. Truman challenges the nature of our society by seeking power where it does not exist. The right to rule is nowhere established in the American Constitution, which insists upon limited powers in each branch of government, so that at no time, in no circumstances, would it be possible for an official to use unlimited power to serve a particular purpose. The President of the United States is not a ruler; he is an instrument created by the Constitution to perform particular tasks.

The argument has been set forth that as Mr. Truman will not be a candidate for President, he can have no intention of expanding personal power. That is beside the point, which is that whenever an attempt is made to weaken the authority of the Constitution and to subvert the law, it must be fought because the law transcends personalities. If Truman had only one more day to serve, it would be necessary to take the Steel Seizure Case up to the Supreme Court to reiterate the inviolability of the Constitution.

This is not dogma; it is the preservation of liberty. It is the safeguarding of our personal freedoms.

It Will Be a Good Show

By TRUMAN TWILL

AT LATEST REPORT the blood-hounds of the law were still sniffing the trail of a 7-foot basketball player accused of committing perjury while defending himself, unsuccessfully, on a charge of exerting undue influence over the score of a basketball game while potting points for pay for a well-known university.

In a few words, this boy is in serious trouble.

A considerable number of other boys are in serious trouble over the same practice of institutions of higher education which professionalized what they unctuously called amateur sports.

Some have been barred for life from participation in organized sports. Since this was their only means of making a living, that is a serious jolt—to them. But meanwhile, what of the colleges and universities which made them what they are today? Are they taking the rap too?

Before the beginning of summer, these institutions will stage the pageantry of commencement. There will be sermons, addresses, processions, awarding of degrees both earned and honorary and all the pomp and circumstance of a ceremony calculated to make the heart beat faster and the soul soar to unaccustomed heights.

Not a word will be said about the basketball mess which has smeared the academic dignity of some of these institutions. The names of the money-hungry kids who were sucked into temptation they could not resist will not be mentioned. No bloodhounds will sniff at the rostrum while the people who abetted this whole miserable business of misleading youth are mouthing pious platitudes.

* * *

NO ALUMNUS who insisted on a winning team at the expense of his alma mater's integrity will decently absent himself from commencement through a sense of shame. No coach who knew he was presiding over an incipient scandal will stay away because when the scandal broke he was unwilling to stand up for the "pupils" he steered wrong.

The tail that has been wagging the academic dog in colleges and universities which put victory first and honor second will be hidden beneath the academic cap and gown. It will be a good show that the public will see—not quite so good as a sell-out crowd at a big athletic contest but satisfactory in its way.

When those commencement speakers rant and roar this spring about the great need for integrity in America—in this hour of decision—it is unlikely they will turn around and leer at the educators who sold their integrity for capacity crowds and the good will of the alumni who demanded victory at any cost.

It is unlikely that anyone in the audience will snicker when a speaker inveighs stoutly against corruption in government. It is even more unlikely that anyone will peep a word about the corruption in educational institutions and the cynical misguidance of boys who happened to be 7 feet tall, or exceptionally skillful in the art of carrying a football through the opposing line.

As usual, the things that most need saying will be left unsaid.

Blood Record Claimed

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP)—University of British Columbia students claimed a North American collegiate record by donating 3,004 pints of blood to the Red Cross. A spokesman said the crown was lifted from the University of Texas which contributed 2,811 pints.

Roles of Key Figures in Impeachment

By John F. Sembower

WHAT WOULD impeachment of President Truman be like, if the House of Representatives approved the resolution by Rep. Hale pending before its judiciary committee?

It could be the most dramatic event of a generation, far eclipsing any congressional investigation, and the Senate would have to decide whether requirements for a "public trial" include infinitely expanding the galleries with television cameras.

The cast for such an unparalleled performance is fairly well established by surprisingly meager provisions in the U.S. Constitution for impeachment, and a single specific precedent, that of the trial of 1868 of President Johnson.

Only a bare majority of the House, with Speaker Rayburn presiding as usual, is required to refer the impeachment to the Senate for trial. There Chief Justice Vinson would preside, while Vice President Barkley stands by to move into the White House in case of a conviction by a two-thirds majority.

Johnson, who succeeded Lincoln and whose career, including bitter differences with Congress, suggests a striking parallel with that of Harry S. Truman, is the only President to have stood trial.

Johnson was threatened with impeachment several times during his stormy term, but his removal of Secretary of War Edwin M. Stanton, in defiance of the Tenure of Office Act, at virtually this same chronological point in his last year in office precipitated the historic trial which provides many patterns which undoubtedly would hold over to the present.

* * *

THE TRIAL WAS a 57-day ordeal ending on May 26 with a 35-19 vote for conviction, one short of the required two-thirds. Johnson, thus escaped removal but even if convicted he would have been protected by a final limitation upon impeachment written into the Constitution, restricting the Senate to disqualifying him "from office, but reserving to the ordinary courts any other indictment, trial, judgment and punishment."

Eleven specific "counts" were set up by the House, acting in its role of a grand jury, in bringing impeachment, but only the issue of violation of the Tenure Act was sharply contested, as might be the case today with the steel seizure as the paramount issue.

It is generally agreed that Chief Justice Chase set a high standard of fairness and competence for any successor in his role. Members of the "radical bloc" in the Senate, with trial-court experience as lawyers, conducted the prosecution as "managers," fiery Ben F. Butler taking the lead.

If President Truman were impeached, and the Johnson parallel were pursued, Attorney General McGranery might resign to head his defense, as did Henry Stanbery. Other leading lawyers of the country might be added to the defense counsel.

* * *

HELPING STANBERY were Benjamin R. Curtis, T. A. R. Nelson of Tennessee, William M. Evarts, who later withdrew when it was revealed that he was linked as counsel in another case involving the government, and William S. Goresbeck, who succeeded Evarts.

The high-tempered Johnson, at the urging of his lawyers, stayed away from the trial, but threatened several times to take over his case personally. Since he had been widely criticized for incautious comments as President, Stanbery urged him to maintain a dignified silence, and he did.

In the long trial, Johnson was accused of many things, including even complicity in the assassination of Lincoln, a charge which later was abandoned as too fantastic. Finally, seven Republicans joined with the Democrats to comprise the 19 that just blocked the necessary two-thirds.

Chase, who wore his judicial robes throughout, had great difficulty preserving the semblance of a trial.

* * *

IT CROWDED into the national nominating conventions that year, and during its last days the National Union Republican Convention nominated the military hero, Gen. U. S. Grant. Later, in the Democratic convention that named Horatio Seymour of New York, Johnson received 65 votes on the first ballot.

Training Red Cross Workers

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON

AS USUAL in cases of national disaster, the American Red Cross was on the scene in the midwest flood areas, ready to help set up temporary shelter for stricken families, to feed and clothe them if need be.

Most of the Red Cross paid field employes are trained for this work, as well as for battle area work little more than a stone's throw from the White House. Miss Daisy M. Settle is national director of training.

Miss Settle helped train some 23,000 overseas and domestic Red Cross men and women in club, hospital and camp services early in the war. Her job today covers the entire field of preparing not only the paid but thousands of volunteer workers in every phase of service from social welfare case work to field service at the battle front.

Miss Settle, a keen, tailored blond, came to Washington just before Pearl Harbor to work for the Federal Works Agency. After Pearl Harbor she went to work for the Red Cross. From 1945 until she took up her present job recently, she has been national director of Red Cross services in veterans' hospitals. "I have always been interested in the Red Cross because it is an organization through which the American people can help their fellow citizens who are in need," she told me.

Today, she said, there are some 15,000 paid Red Cross workers all around the world, chiefly serving as field directors, assistant field directors in hospitals, and recreation workers wherever there are large concentrations of U. S. service personnel. Some 438 men and women are stationed in the Far East. In Korea 162 field directors are attached to army units, 162 women work in military hospitals and about 50 are in club services.

Miss Settle said the past 12 months have been especially heavy in disasters. "In last summer's floods around Kansas City, for instance, we had some 200 paid workers and at least 10,000 volunteers, and the Red Cross spent some $15,000,000. More than 150 paid workers and about 5,000 volunteers served in the two tornado areas in Arkansas later, and in the current flood areas we have alread some 200 paid workers and several thousand volunteers."

Miss Settle hails from Tallahassee, Fla. and was educated at Florida State University, where for some years she she was a member of the faculty.

Marion County History Brevities

By EDNA S. DUTTON

Philip Phillips was a well-known singer and composer whose first book, "Early Blossoms," was published in the early 1880's. He sold around 20,000 copies of the publication. In a year or two he brought out his second book, "Musical Leaves," which had a large circluation in the Army, and approximately 700,000 copies were sold. Next appeared the "Singing Pilgrim," a most unique and methodical compilation of sacred songs. The story of John Bunyan's "Pilgrim," suggested topics of thought and pictorial illustration of the book.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Why Parents Go Mad

IT BEGINS TO LOOK as if not even God can win a case before the United States Supreme Court without a dissenting opinion by three or four of its members. The gods of all faiths had to be content with a six-to-three decision recently when Justice Frankfurter, Jackson and Black saw something wrong about the public schools releasing small fry for an hour a week, at their parents' request, for a spiritual fortification of character.

The average parent, deeply worried about his children's spiritual side in an age of frightful juvenile delinquencies, was left bleeding and dazed by the fact the highest court in the country could come up with a split decision over whether it busts the constitution wide open and opens the republic to destruction if Little Willie is freed from school in order to get a little religious instruction in any church, chapel, synagogue or meeting house.

* * *

"I've got to fight crime blueprints in the movies, radio and video; I've got to fight the influence of street-corner hoodlums; I've got to fight my children's weird impulses in a screwball era; I've got to fight evil influence in a thousand places that can make bums and criminals out of my kids—and NOW I'VE GOT TO FIGHT THE SUPREME COURT!" excla med one hand-writing mother today.

We explained that only Justices Frankfurter, Black and Jackson would make it tough for her, and that the six other members voted to uphold state board of education rules permitting kids to leave school an hour a week for maybe a little contact with the Bible.

* * *

Believe it or not, the dissenters held that coercion was involved. If Junior takes an hour from school, plays hookey from the religious instructions and is caught, a report is made to the school and to the parents. This showing up of the kid as a cheat is COERCION!! Justice Frankfurter even ruled that unless the small fry who don't want to go to church are also let out of school to have fun, they are victims of FORCE.

"The school board rule displays a surprising want of confidence in the inherent power of the various religious faiths to draw children," declared Frankfurter, a low blow at the religions if we ever saw one. (Ya mean, yerroner, that you ever heard of a kid who, if given a free hour from school studies, would rather go to church than go fire rocks through windows?)

Justice Jackson held that school was made "a temporary jail" when the kids whose parents did not want them to take any spiritual training were kept in the class when the others were hearing about the Bible. "So a school is a hoosegow if it pays any attention to kids whose parents are fighting a desperate battle to keep them clean and straight!" exclaimed a parent of our acquaintance. "Yeah," we replied. "The things some justices can worry about!"

LIMERICKS FOR A CRISIS

There once was a certain Judge Pine

News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO—It was Wednesday, May 6, 1942.

Corregidor fell after 28 days of siege. The doughty American-Filipino troops, who held the island fortress after the loss of Bataan despite sustained air bombardment and a shattering cross fire of heavy shore batteries from both sides of Manila bay, finally were forced to yield to an overwhelming Japanese landing attack.

Another large war department project in the Marion area seemed assured when it was reported the department had announced authorization for construction of two depot warehouses in Ohio. The warehouses were to cost "in excess of $3 million."

Mrs. Phoebe Ellen Tweddle Kimber, 76, ill of heart trouble for three weeks, died in her home at Prospect. She was a lifelong resident of Marion County.

First meeting of Ohio Delta Beta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, was held at the home of Miss Shirley Pierce, 308 Franklin St.

N. G. Irvin was elected president for the coming year at a meeting of Buckeye Aerie No. 337, F.O. Eagles.

* * *

TWENTY YEARS AGO—It was Friday, May 6, 1932.

A news dispatch from Washington reported that the House ways and means committee had voted 15-10 against all plans for cashing the $2 billion soldiers bonus.

Twin daughters were born to Mr. and Mrs. George Snyder of N. State St.

Seventeen cattle were pinned in debris of a barn on the Fred Krock farm near Kenton during a heavy windstorm. A summer kitchen on the nearby Clarence Freshcorn farm collapsed in the wind.

Ralph Dutt, 12, of Hane Ave., a student at the George Washington School, won the city marble championship at the Central Junior High School grounds. Other finalists in the tournament, which was sponsored by the YMCA, were Dale Mooreheart of the Mark St. School and Raymond Jones of the Oak St. building.

A Mother's Day program was given at a meeting of H. and T. Club with Mrs. Ethel Richards of Avondale Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bonsell entertained the Bijou Euchre Club at their home on Mound St.

Green Camp Woman Honored For 50 Years of Church Work

Special to The Star

GREEN CAMP—Mrs. Edith O. Welch was the honored member of the Green Camp Baptist congregation at the annual business meeting held April 30. She has been church clerk for more than 50 consecutive years. She was first elected in August 1901. Mrs. Donna Ruth Jones was named to succeed her in the recent election, Mrs. Welch having expressed the desire to be relieved of the job in that "she had done her bit in that capacity."

During her half-century of service Mrs. Welch has seen many changes in the church, both in doctrine and otherwise. She served as clerk under 16 ministers.

Started in Frame Church

She started her service in a frame church building which in 1865 had been moved on the NYP&O railroad to Green Camp from the Radnor road, which was located at Bridge and Main Sts., then moved to Main and Broadway Sts. while a tile church was erected at the former site. The old frame church is now a residence. Pastors under whom Mrs. Welch has been clerk are E. E. Thompson, E. E. Cartwright, F. A. Twining, Samuel Fulton, H. H. Hoyt, L. C. Pinkerton, J. M. Cosby, W. W. Crabtree, G. L. Kettering, J. F. Smith, V. P. Powell, Rex Van Court, William Hallbauer, Charles W. Harmon, Lester Kidd and A. H. Nothstine.

In 1912 Mrs. Welch helped with negotiations when the union of the Regular and Free Will Baptists took place and the name of Green Camp Baptist church was adopted.

Then in 1920 and 1921 under Rev. W. W. Crabtree the title church was torn down and the present brick structure was erected. Then under Rev. Kidd a remodeling and renovating program was started which is still in progress under the present pastor, Rev. Nothstine.

Honored With Program

Mrs. Welch was especially honored by a program of music dedicated to her, which included duet and quartet numbers, a reading by Mrs. Donna Ruth Jones, and the presentation to her of a large cake lighted by 50 candles and a gift of a chain and cross from the congregation.

The minute book kept by Mrs. Welch is very complete. In addition to her long hand reports of various church activities are clippings from The Marion Star and any other printed word dealing with or pertaining to any of the local church activities throughout the past half-century. Mrs. Welch for a number of years has been clerk of the Green Camp township trustees. She has one daughter, Mrs Esther Firstenberger of Summit St. in Marion.

AMERICAN MOTHER GOES TO CHURCH. Mrs Toy Len Goon, named "American Mother of 1952," and her two daughters, Doris (left) and Janet, are greeted by the Rev George Alden Cole, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Portland, Me, as they leave the church The Chinese mother of eight talented children operates a laundry with the help of the two daughters. The 57-year-old widow was born in Canton, China, and came to Portland 30 years ago

3,300 Persons Attend "Ice Vogues" Opening

By ANGELYN PALERMO

"Ice Vogues of 1952," opened at the Veterans Coliseum Monday night with color rhythm and madcap comedians and thrilled the 3,300 opening night spectators

Eight big production numbers, featuring the precision of the "Glamour Icers" and the "Ice Squires" set the pace of the extravaganza, from the gay opening minstrel number "Bring Back Those Minstrel Days" to the finale "Color! Action! Precision!" with the entire ensemble of 75 skaters in precision routines

Bill Wallenborn as "The Absent-Minded Professor" kept the audience laughing with his rubber-legged nonsense in one of the comedy highlights Fred Holly and George Simpson drew howls in their skit "Oh, My Aching Tooth," with Bob as the efficient dentist and Fred as a Mr Milquetoast type of patient. Another comedy highlight was Doc Carlin as the drunken "Beau Brummel," which particularly delighted children

Dressed As Birds

One of the most lavish production scenes was "Winged Rhapsody," in which the Glamour Icers are costumed as brilliant tropical birds and Donna Jeanne is presented as the rare white peacock complete with an exquisite peacock tail In this spectacle the ensemble executes a flowingly lovely fan routine, maneuvering over-sized feather fans of startling colors in formations that drew rounds of applause

Tony LeMac, spinning with skill and ease, made his performance, "Moderne," a delight to the eye Jimmie Caesar, with his swift pace and broad jumps over cutely clad Indian maidens and leaping flames, added thrills for the audience in his "Indian Brave" entry.

The most opulent scene is "Reflections in Gold" with the Glamour Icers adorned in huge bell-like custumes completely embroidered with gold mirrors. They perform a number working with lighted gold violins and weaving effects are dazzling as the area comes alive with dancing golden dots. Featured in this scene were Tommy and Susanne LaVonne and James Caesar in the adagio number Susanne and Tommy LaVonne exhibit their special forte on figure skates in "Apache," one of the favorite entries on the program.

"Candyland" with all the girls dressed as luscious peppermint soldiers and the boys as big tasty lollipops, appear in one of the gayest spots of the evening. The little soldiers parade about on platform boots and end up being shot down by a peppermint cannon.

Smaller Numbers

There are many smaller group numbers, one of the best being a rootin' tootin' sheriff who has eight tough hombres dancing to the patter of his gun shots There's also a smart octet interpreting soft shoe rhythms, with the girls in colorful gowns and picture hats There's also an amusing magical group with hot dogs, buns, pickles, mustard and ladle

The girl from the well loved "Wizard of Oz" is accompanied by those loveable characters, the cowardly lion, the tin woodsman and the scarecrow, in a musical episode.

There are other stellar acts, such as the Dahlquist Sisters in a charming Dutch duo, Donna Jeanne and Tony LeMac in "In Gay Paree," and Kay Farrelli, the International Juggler

Producers of the show are George and Ruth Tyson Working with them are Marie Carr, arranging the choreography; Dolores Pallet, musical advisor, Paul Summay, who arranged the score, Billy Livingston, in charge of costume designing, and Douglas Morris, presenting the brilliant lighting effects

Milton Blakely is musical director and Wayne Thompson, tenor is vocalist and master of ceremonies

Tickets for the show can still be purchased at the National City Bank and at Gallaher's Drug Store for tonight's, Wednesday's and Thursday's performances at 8:30 p m.

Designer Combines Balloon Skirts, Sassy Blouses

PARIS (AP) — Imagine sweetly old-fashioned ruffled and starched balloon skirts topped with sassy blouses, as low-cut and form-moulding as Bikinis

That's the latest fashion formula from Paris

France's youngest designer, Hubert de Givenchy, in the second collection of his career went in for a piquant combination of the good old days with the atom age

Unless it's already exhausted, Granny's attic trunk is due for further raids from style-conscious modern misses There they may be able to dredge up stiff crinoline petticoats and frilly, frilly blouses that will be just the ticket for summer, 1952

Wallpaper-printed chintz, chignon covers and bows, camisole decolletage, triangular fringed fichus (shawls), rhinestone show buckles and curtain-material cretonnes and other ideas Givenchy has dusted off and brightened up for modern times

Largely by the use of naughty necklines, he manages to carry off most of these with an air

Givenchy glamorizes that most-unglamorous item of headgear, the babushka or peasant handkerchief by embroidering it lavishly with sequins, or fronting it with a dramatic rose, Spanish senorita style Otherwise, he likes floppy hats that leave the wearer practically faceless or little round calots wrapped with chiffon scarves, leaving a bare tonsure in the middle

Even the woman who likes to wear pants is going to look feminine this year Slacks covered with embroidery re-appear at Givenchy's (Patou has them, too) To go with these there are blousy shirts which can only be described as sloppier than Sloppy Joes

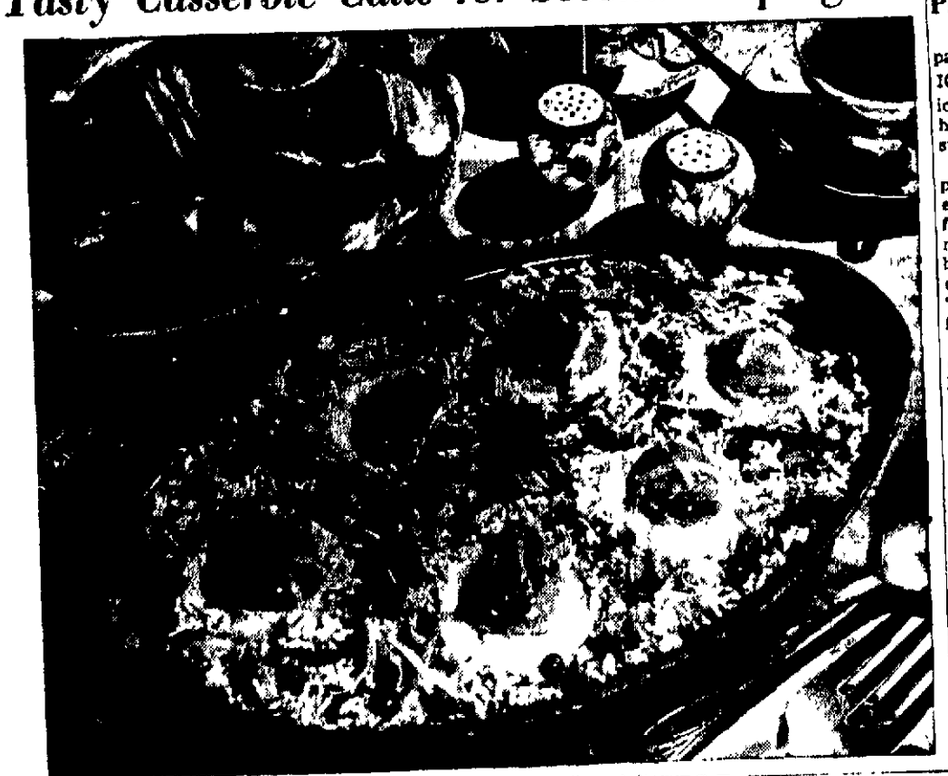
Tasty Casserole Calls for Second Helpings



EVERY BITE of this flavorful casserole has "come - back - for - more" appeal. The peas, pimiento and cheese, along with a dash of onion, combine flavors in the rice to produce out-of-this-world eating and make a delicious combination with the decorative eggs.

Happily, this casserole may be prepared ahead of time. The eggs are added a half-hour before the meal is to be served and while they bake the table is set and the rest of the food assembled. Then prepare to bask in the heap of praise which eaters will send flying.

RICE AND EGG CASSEROLE

3 cups cooked rice
1½ cups cooked peas
2 T diced pimiento
2 T chopped parsley
1 T grated onion
1 t salt
⅓ cup melted butter or margarine
1 cup grated cheese
½ cup milk
6 eggs

Mix together the rice, peas, pimiento, parsley, onion, salt, butter or margarine and half of the cheese. Spread evenly in a greased baking dish (10 by 6 by 2 inches). Pour the milk over the rice mixture. Make six wells in the rice mixture and drop an egg into each well.

Sprinkle the remaining cheese over the top of the eggs and rice. Bake at 350 F. for 30 minutes or until the eggs are set. This recipe serves six.

Photos Trace Old Volcano In Mexico

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)— The history of a Mexican volcano that disappeared thousands of years ago has been reconstructed by a California Institute of Technology geologist.

Dr. Richard H. Jahns, professor of geology, found the story of the volcano that collapsed in the walls of Crater Elegante, a mile-wide cavity in the earth's crust near the Pinacate range in northern Sonora, about 30 miles south of the Arizona border.

It was brought to Dr. Jahn's attention by William C. Miller, a photographer for the Mount Wilson and Palomar observatories in California.

Miller saw a magazine picture of Elegante and decided it might be a meteorite crater. He drove a jeep to the rugged Pinacate region to investigate and photograph the cavity.

He took the pictures to Dr. Jahns, who recognized the chasm as a caldera, or collapsed volcano.

Almost Circular

His investigation disclosed several cavities in the same area and established that Elegante was a particularly graphic caldera.

Elegante is nearly circular, about a mile in diameter and 800 feet deep at the deepest point.

By studying the walls of the chasm, Dr. Jahns found that very fluid basalt lavas had flowed through fractures in the ground, forming a major vent and slowly building a dome-like hill several hundred feet high. The dome-building then slowed down, and hardened lava clogged the central vent.

Cinders were blown out along the perimeter of the dome, forming small cones.

Then a vastly larger central cone was built, partly by explosive activity, Prof. Jahns believes.

Dropped Into Earth

The history of the volcano reached an abrupt climax when its entire top and adjacent parts cut to a radius of one-half mile vanished from the landscape. The professor believes the vast rock heap simply shuddered and fell into the earth like a piston dropping in an almost circular cylinder.

He concluded that effervescent removal of materials from below the cone caused the collapse. The top of the cone was built from materials from a closed-source chamber deep underground in which lava bubbled and seethed, he says, and eventually the underground pressure became so great that the cauldron began to effervesce.

So much lava frothed away that a great void grew in the subterranean chamber and when enough of its support had been removed, Elegante collapsed into the void.

When the collapse occurred is not known, although Elegante is believed to be many thousands of years old. Professor Jahns believes it may have collapsed shortly after the close of the Pleistocene, or glacial, epoch, making the caldera about 25,000 years old.

Fuel for diesel engines is injected into the cylinders through holes as small as 5,000th of an inch.

Old Law Puts Co-Eds On Spot in Nebraska

LINCOLN, Neb. (UP)— A 1905 Nebraska law could cause trouble for a co-ed wearing her one-and-only's fraternity pin.

According to law students writing in the Daily Nebraskan, University of Nebraska student newspaper, a 1905 law, still on the books says:

"Whoever willfully wears or uses the badge, insignia, jewel or badge of recognition . . . of any society, lodge, guild or association, fraternity or otherwise, who is not a member in good standing . . . shall be fined in any sum not to exceed $50 or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not to exceed 90 days . . ."

Don't Worry About IQ, Psychologist Advises

BERKELEY, Calif. (UP)—Most parents and teachers take a child's IQ test too seriously, in the opinion of Dr. J. W. MacFarlane, who has just completed a 24-year study of such things.

The University of California psychologist, whose survey tested each year the IQ's of 250 selected families, said a person's score might vary as much as 20 points between the ages of 6 and 18. It depends to a large extent on "health, worries, moods and other factors," MacFarlane said.

It's easier to tell how tall your child is going to be by measuring him when he's young than it is to tell how smart he'll be, according to MacFarlane's findings. At the age of 20 months the average girl is half as tall as she'll ever be. For boys the average half-way mark in height is reached at the age of 24 months, the survey showed.

At junior high level, girls are two years ahead of boys in maturity, MacFarlane reported, but then boys start catching up.

Tires That Don't Hum

Latest in Driving

AKRON, O. (UP)—The Goodrich new safety tire is for the dogs and you have the company's word fo it.

The company announced the tire has a tread so designed that it doesn't hum on the pavement the way other tires do. The hum has been set up to a higher pitch—so high the human ear can't hear it but it is perceptible to the more finely tuned ear of the dog.

Engineers said the new tire also is more skid-resistant than older models.

THE STRAIGHT STORY ABOUT TELEVISION ANTENNAS

So much confusion has existed on this subject we would like to make this explanation:

The insurance companies regard the aerial as an integral part of the television set so the entire set—including the aerial—is now protected under fire and extended coverage insurance on your household goods.

The chances are your insurance should be increased, shouldn't it.

Marion Man Survives Ship Blast

In Gun Turret Of St. Paul When Powder Explodes

James R. Kohler, seaman first class, USN, of Marion, was one of five survivors when an explosion in a gun turret on the cruiser S. Paul off Korea, April 21, killed 31 American seamen .

Kohler, in a letter received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Kohler of 485 Foster Lane, told of the explosion which killed 31 of the 36 men on duty in the eight-inch forward turret.

The Navy called it the worst naval disaster of the Korean war and described it as a gunpowder fire of undetermined origin.

The blast rocked the heavy cruiser. All 31 victims were killed by asphyxiation due to burning gases.

Kohler, 21, enlisted in the Navy last July and has served in Korean waters all winter. He was employed at Roecker's Bakery before his enlistment.

The St. Paul was firing on Communist positions on the Korean east coast at the time of the explosion. It continued firing after the blast and still is in Korean waters.

LAW FIRM MOVES

RICHWOOD — Attorney Robert F. Allen of Richwood has purchased the Dr. Gene Glendening business building in Richwood and will, in the near future remodel, redecorate and move his law office to the new address from his present location above the Isaly store. Nelson Blue will also have office space to continue his real estate business at the new location. Allen hopes to move his office to the new location about June 15.

WINNER'S SMILE—Gail Peters of Washington, D. C., and Trenton, N. J., holds medal at Daytona Beach, Fla., where she smashed two records in AAU senior swim meet.

Organize Morrow Co. Republicans

(Special to The Star)

MT. GILEAD — Morrow County Youth Republicans organized on a temporary basis at a recent meeting held at the courthouse. Dwight McClarren of near Mt. Gilead was named temporary chairman.

A permanent organization is expected to be completed in June or July. Other temporary officers picked by the group are: Scott Belt of near Denmark, vice chairman; William Johnstone of Cardington secretary; and Wane Snyder of Cardington, treasurer.

Members of the executive committee include: Wm. Johncox, Wm. Van Horn and Ed Smiley of Cardington; Gale Weller, Judge Leland Rutherford, C. H. Calhoun and Terry Griffith of Mt. Gilead, and Bud Ault of near Johnsville.

Gar Smith, chairman of the Morrow County Republican Executive Committee and Harold Taylor, secretary of the group, helped with the organization. Hugh Kirkwood of Marion and Hugh Wait of Caledonia, both of the Attorney General's office, were present at the meeting.

Police Report 7 Week-End Accidents

A parked bicycle owned by Dick Hart of 421 N. State St. was struck by an unknown vehicle Monday afternoon, city police reported today. It was parked in front of Hotel Harding on W. Center St. The front of the bicycle was damaged.

Seven traffic accidents were reported over the week end.

Cars driven by Lucile Keipter of Lima and John E. Walters, 41, of Dayton collided at the intersection of S. Main St. and alley adjacent to Midtown Chevrolet Co. at 2:55 p.m. Sunday. The left rear of the Keipter car was damaged and the right front of the Walters car.

At the intersection of W. Center St. and Orchard St. cars driven by Frank L. Martin, 23, of 890 Woodrow Ave., and John F. Berridge, 19, of Franconia Ave. collided at 7:41 p.m. Sunday. The rear of the Martin car was damaged and the grill of the Berridge car.

Edward Franklin Miller, 38, of 503 Tyler St. was arrested on a charge of driving with insufficient brakes after an accident at 7:22 a.m. Monday. The accident occurred at the intersection of N. Main St. and the alley adjacent to 142 N. Main St. and driver of the second car was Lester E. Parks, 44, of near Richwood. Miller's car was held for his appearance in Municipal Court. The right front of the Miller car was damaged and the left side of the Parks car.

At 12:30 p.m. Sunday cars driven by Elmer M. Ferriman, 32, of 356 N. State St. and Gayle E. Rollison, 28, of 352 E. Farming St. collided in front of 152 N. Main St. The right front of the Ferriman car was damaged.

Cars driven by Cline C. Vance, 42, of 152 W. Fairground St. and Mrs. Lydia Martha Dunbar, 64, of near Marion collided on N. Main St. at the Big Bear store at 4:38 p.m. Saturday. The right front of the Vance car was damaged and the left front of the Dunbar car.

At 6 p.m. Saturday cars driven by John E. Robbins, 28, of 476 Ballentine Ave. and Arthur E. Plummer, 40, of 889 Woodrow Ave. collided at the intersection of E. George St. and State St. Both cars were damaged.

We The Satellites—II

Unrest Spreading In Czechoslovakia After Four Years of Communist Rule

Of all the European satellites, Czechoslovakia knew the greatest measure of freedom as an independent nation before World War II. Today the nation that Masaryk and Benes built is held captive by the Communists—and even Communists can't call their lives their own. Suspicion is everywhere. This is the second of five articles by William L. Ryan telling the story of the satellites—Stalin's colonies in Europe—as they exist today.

* * *

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

A SPECIAL group of women—a very special group—is going to school in Czechoslovakia.

The school is at Brno. The women learn domestic work and other languages. When they get out, they get jobs.

These women, say underground reports, become agents of the secret police. Their special assignments: domestic work in the homes of foreign diplomats. The information they pick up in such jobs is channeled back to the police.

This is only one of many things underlying the widespread atmosphere of fear and distrust which pervades Czechoslovakia after four years of chaotic rule by the Communists.

A European businessman recently out of the country says this atmosphere has deepened greatly since he visited there a year ago. Today no Czechoslovakia official, whether of a state-run business or in any other line of endeavor, can see a foreigner unless a witness is present. Everybody is suspected.

The deep river of suspicion engulfs the party, too, in the wake of the expulsion of its general secretary Rudolf Slansky.

There are many rumors, many "reliable" reports about the party and the government. Sifting them all, one impression is inescapable. No matter what the current alliances and the current pressures, President Klement Gottwald is in trouble.

* * *

THERE ARE MANY varying views of his trouble. Some say he is engaged in a bitter struggle with Premier Antonin Zapotocky, trying to pin on the prefailures. Others—there was a report like this from Yugoslavia—say Gottwald is struggling against the Moscow wing of the party. But other sources, at least as well informed as the Yugoslavs, insist Gottwald has asked Moscow to remove from power some of his present lieutenants, possibly including Zapotocky.

Exiles in the United States insist there is only one boss in Communist-ruled Czechoslovakia: Stalin. They insist—like many in Europe—that Gottwald has been told what Moscow requires from Czechoslovakia industry, and that he is not bringing performance up to the schedule. There is speculation Gottwald, recently reported ailing, may even go to Moscow for the famed "Moscow cure."

In any event, the party is in turmoil. A short time ago in Prague, about 100 party men, mostly district party secretaries, were arrested in connection with the Slansky affair.

It is another evidence of the sickness which strikes Communist parties in power. The same sickness of fear and distrust drove the Communist to arrest Vladimir Clementis, former foreign minister, largly because he once had connections with the West. He, like Slansky, has not yet gone on trial. It was the same sickness which caused the Communists to arrest the Associated Press correspondent, William N. Oatis, and sentence him to prison on a charge of spying. In the distorted view of a Communist, a newspaperman performing his job is a spy.

* * *

WHILE THE PARTY struggles, the people shuffle through life in an attitude of hopelessness. Now and then there are reports of some resistance from miners cutting down on production or factory workers silently opposing the speedup of "socialist competition."

Communist bosses rant against absenteeism and send the worst offenders into forced labor. But in many places the Communists are obliged to move slowly because of a threat that workers will leave their jobs en masse.

The Russians, as in the other captive nations, are taking over everywhere. In the schools Soviet methods have been installed. All Soviet holidays are observed and school buildings post pictures of Stalin. Only maps printed in the U.S.S.R. may be used.

A school teacher earns about 5,000 crowns a month. To get this job she must be screened, particularly for the higher classes, on knowledge of things Communist and Soviet and on the candidates record of telling the children constantly "about Stalin."

With her 5,000 crowns a month, the teacher faces prices like these: cloves cost 550 crowns: shoes, 3,000 to 5,000: Nylon stockings, 1,800: Pork, rationed, 55 a kilo salami, 1,000: coffee and tea, 2,000 a kilo

The Communist state exerts pressure on all religious, particularly the Roman Catholic. Some three quarters of the country's 12 1-2 millions are catholics. "Progressive" priests—those persuaded to follow Communist directives—are being installed in the attempt to divorce the Catholics from the Vatican and set up a national church. Archbishop Josef Beran, Roman Catholic primate of Czechoslovakia, and a number of bishops remain in confinment, possibly awaiting trial.

* * *

ANTI-SEMITISM is reported getting toward the boiling point, ever since the Slansky affair. Slansky is Jewish. Recently, periodic raids have been reported on the homes of Jews in Bratislava.

The anti-Jewish movement—part of it apparently a frenzied attack on zionism as a national sentiment dangerous to Communism—seems to be getting plenty of official support in high places. The Communist press refers to Jews in a hostile way and to "Jerusalem" as a seat of intrigue.

Even Premier Zaptocky has publicly fanned the flames. He uses the term "Judo-Trotskyism" to describe alleged crimes of the Slansky group.

Like the Nazis before them, the Communists apparently are using the Jews as scapegoats to take the blame for failures and to divert attention from their own machinations.

Van Fleet Says Reds Not After Peace in Korea

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Truce negotiators held another short session without sign of progress today, prompting the Allied ground commander to say the Communists apparently never wanted peace in Korea.

"If the Communists wanted an armistice," said Gen. James A. Van Fleet, they would have reached an agreement in ten months of negotiations.

Regardless of whether the Reds want to settle the war on the battlefield or at the conference table, the U.S. Eighth Army commander said, the Allies will come out on top. He put it this way:

"We can either out-fight them or out-sit them."

Mrs. Fred Jones

ASHLEY—Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday afternoon in Columbus for Mrs. Florence Westbrook Jones, 68, a former resident of the Ashley community whose death occurred suddenly Sunday. She was at the bedside of her brother, Lloyd Westbrook, at the home of a nephew, Donald Westbrook, southeast of Ashley, when she was stricken. The brother had suffered a stroke several weks ago, and Mrs. Jones and her husband, Fred Jones, had come from their home in Columbus to visit him after calling earlier Sunday at the home of Marion Westbrook, another brother who lives nearby.

When Mrs. Jones was stricken an Ashley physician was called, but she was dead when he arrived. She had been in ill health some time, suffering from a heart ailment. Her death occurred in the home where she was born and reared, the old family residence on the Oxford-Joint County Line Rd. being occupied now by the Donald Westbrook family.

Surviving with her husband and brothers are children, Mrs. Martha Cain of Columbus, Mrs. Olive Skyles of Los Angeles, Calif., and Robert Jones of Rolling Hills, Calif.

The funeral services will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday in the Carroll Weir Funeral Home on N. High St. in Columbus. Burial will be in Glendale Cemetery at Cardington Friends may call at the funeral home tonight from 7 to 9.

McCARTHY AND RECORDER. Senator Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) looks over papers in a Senate office building room as he poses with a tape recording device he insisted be used during testimony by Senator William Benton (D-Conn) in a pre-trial hearing in McCarthy's libel-slander suit against Benton.

Mrs. James Rarick

BUCYRUS—A verdict concerning the death of Mrs. Mata Rarick, 48, has been withheld, pending the outcome of an autopsy today ordered by Dr. B. P. Mansfield, Crawford County coroner. Mrs. Rarick's body was found early Monday in an automobile parked in the garage of her home in Bucyrus.

A hose was attached to the exhaust of the car, but the ignition switch was closed, police reported. An open bottle of sleeping tablets was found in her bedroom.

The body of her husband, James Rarick, was discovered under similar circumstances, in the same car and garage, Dec. 26, 1950. He had been in poor health.

Born Sept. 15, 1903, in Crestline, Mrs. Rarick was the daughter of William and Beva Falk Holker. She had lived in Bucyrus since her marriage to James Rarick April 19, 1925. She was employed at Shelby Air Force Depot.

Surviving are her father, who lives in Crestline, and five sisters, Mrs. Freda Satterfield of Galion, Mrs. Louise McNary of Cleveland, Mrs. Pauline Ryland of Ashland and Mrs. Loretta Speelman and Miss Helen Holker, both of Crestline.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Wednesday in the Wise Funeral Home. The Rev. Glenn Lockard, pastor of First Methodist Church of which she was a member, will officiate. Burial will be in Oakwood Cemetery. Friends may call tonight at the funeral home.

Achievement Day Held At Bucyrus

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — Two hundred women from seven counties attended the annual Achievement Day program of District 2 of the Ohio Home Demonstration Council here Thursday.

The meeting also marked the final gathering of the district, which has been reorganized. Counties in the old district included Delaware, Marion, Wyandot, Seneca, Sandusky, Ottawa and Crawford.

Under the redistricting plan, the seven counties are parts of three new districts.

The new district 2 includes Lucas, Ottawa, Seneca, Sandusky and Wood counties. In District 4 are Hancock, Hardin, Logan, Union, Marion and Wyandot counties while District 7 is composed of Delaware, Morrow, Crawford, Richland, Knox and Ashland counties.

New officers were selected by Districts 2 and 7 while officers of District 4 will be chosen at a later date. Mrs. John Stoneman is president of District 2 with Mrs. Harry Kardatzki, Ottawa county vice president, and Mrs. Clifford Bowersox, Seneca County, secretary. New officers of District 7 are: president, Mrs. Jerome Donovin, Delaware county; secretary, Mrs. Herbert Lackey, Delaware county, and treasurer, Mrs. Arlo Lutz, Crawford County.

The morning session featured an address by Mrs. Harold Edwards of Westerville, president of the Ohio Home Demonstration Council. Committee reports were given by Mrs. Kenneth Barber, Delaware county, Mrs. Harold Hartschuh, Seneca, Mrs. C. Sweigard, Wyandot, Mrs. Earl Augenstein, Marion, Mrs. Eldon Ackerman, Crawford, Mrs. Phillip Winter, Ottawa, Mrs. Edwin Duquette and Mrs. Robert Holtshouse, Crawford.

At the afternoon session, Charles Blackman, extension specialist in dairy science at Ohio State University was moderator for an international panel. Participating were Miss Miriam Boulc, Union county, who spent six months recently in Israel, and two Ohio State university exchange students, Talat Vardar of Turkey, and Kamal Ahmed of Egypt.

Prospect Seniors Entertained By Juniors at Prom

"Moonlight and Roses" was the theme when the senior class of Prospect High School was entertained by the junior class at the annual banquet and prom in the school recently.

The senior class colors of red and white and the class flower, the red rose, were also used in the banquet decorations. The class motto, "We Finish to Begin," was displayed prominently. Dinner music was played during the meal, which was served by mothers of the junior class members.

Seated at the guest table were Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Anderson and the Rev. and Mrs. A. O. Long of Springfield. Favors were red roses, red and white candles, memory books and white pencils, small Bibles, and copies of the class prophecy and will.

Invocation was given by the Rev. Mr. Long, a former pastor in Prospect. A welcome was extended by Thad Sobers, junior class president, and accepted by Gerald Fox, senior class president. The prophecy was read by Sobers and the will was read by Charlotte Matthews.

The Rev. Mr. Long, guest speaker, used "Moonlight and Roses" as the topic for his talk. Mills, superintendent of county schools, and Anderson also spoke briefly to the group.

Mrs. George Williams was in charge of plans for the banquet, assisted by Mrs. Harold Anderson.

A dance following the banquet was held in the school auditorium. The room was decorated to look like an outdoor garden, with a moon, stars, a stone wall, garden furniture and a pond with gold fish. Punch was served by a stone table.

Jim Mayes and his orchestra played for dancing. A special feature was tap dancing by Pamela and Marilyn Neville of Waldo. Guests at the dance were members of the faculty, their husbands and wives, and Mrs. Robert Apt and Miss Jackie Osborn.

Benton's Feud With McCarthy Aired on TV

WASHINGTON (AP) — The feuding senators—McCarthy and Benton—aired on television Monday night their dispute over whether tape recording is an accurate way of taking testimony

McCarthy, acting as his own attorney in a two-million-dollar libel and slander suit against Benton, had a tape recorder ready when Benton showed up at his office for a pre-trial hearing Monday

Benton, a Connecticut Democrat refused to answer questions, on advice of his attorneys, until McCarthy, a Wisconsin Republican, removed the recorder McCarthy refused

Benton went on a television program (CBS-TV-News) a few hours later to demonstrate why he was opposed to tape recorders. He had a recorded sentence broadcast

'A veteran court reporter said he knew of no instance where a voice recording was used in district court to report testimony taken under court auspices'

Then Benton had a technician take out the words "of no instance" and play back the sentence

'A veteran court reporter said he knew where a voice recording was used in district court to report testimony taken under court auspices"

A film used on the same program showed McCarthy, who said he does not know why Benton 'should object to having a completely accurate record of his voice taken down"

'I believe maybe" he declared this may be a tip-off to how much confidence Connecticut's mental midget has in his own case against McCarthy because he's trying to expose some of Benton's friends in the state department'

Benton replied that he didn't 'particularly mind being called a mental midget' adding, 'I'm sure my constituents and friends in Connecticut will understand it —will understand it and understand the motivation of it'

Love Triumphant

By ADELE GARRISON

Dicky had his hand on the door knob when he finished his gibing farewell and he whisked through it so swiftly that neither Lillian nor I had any opportunity to answer him even if we could have conquered our risibles enough for speech I rose as the sound of the closing door came to our ears

"I'll put on the night chain" I said moving toward the door

'You'd better if you don't want a father's curse' she said wiping her eyes 'And I'll think up a few refined tortures for that five letter word describing that insect husband of ours"

But when I came back her mind had traveled away from Dicky She was sitting erect and tense in her chair, with her eyes fixed on the opposite wall We do not question each other needlessly, so I sat down in the chair opposite hers took up a magazine and began to read forcing my mind away from whatever problem she was facing knowing that she would tell me anything except her secret determination to see Ronald alone and bolster his refusal to marry Marion because of his prospect of a wheel chair existence for the rest of his life And that problem I need not face for several days

Then my magazine skittered to the floor unheeded as I heard my friend's voice uttering my name with appeal—and a nuance of despair

'Madge'" she said "Madge'

I was at her side in the next instant, and caught up her twisting hands in my own

Yes, dear girl, I'm here, I told her What is it?'

'Not what you imagine,' she said 'I'm not thinking about Marion's problem and I'm perfectly all right I'm going to stay up the rest of the day, as I told you But—oh Do you suppose there will be any chance of Harry's coming back for just a few minutes so that I can know he's really alive and well' And, I do need him so'

I knew what I had to do when I heard the raucous tones of her voice and saw the ravaged lines etching themselves again into her face I told myself defensively that I did not care what my father's reaction would be to the discovery that I had told Lillian about Harry's freedom to visit her, without consulting him first I preferred my conscience to the excuse that Dicky had not stressed any prohibition against telling Lillian of the accident to Terry McGovern which would keep him immobile for a long time although I knew what my father's disapproval would be But, I argued my father had turned the management of Lillian and the problem of Marion over to me I felt resolution to end one phase of her anguish getting adamant

"Old dear" I said briskly 'I'm going to break, not my pledged word, but an implied promise Are you strong enough to hear some good news'

She came to her feet with her hand, no longer twisting, looked into mine

'Harry'' she breathed "You have heard' He is all right' Oh please tell me quickly' And—" her voice held a note of reproach —'how long have you known'"

"Dicky told me less than a half-hour ago," I said "And, if I tell you the news, you must give no hint to Dicky or my father that you have heard anything from me Can you promise me that'"

$400,000 Damage Done in Prison Riot at Montreal

MONTREAL (AP) — Bordeaux jail's subdued prisoners, half of their mates farmed out to other local cells, went back to prison routine today as an official riot investigation gathered momentum

For the first time since Sunday's riot and a lesser outbreak choked off Monday by tear gas, all prisoners were locked in individual cells Monday night Because of damage to sections of the cells only 327 of the rioters could be housed at Bordeaux The rest about 250, were moved to city and provincial police stations

Unofficial estimates placed the riot damage as high as $400,000

Antoine Rivard, solicitor general of Quebec, was due here today to talk with Dr Zenon Lesage, the jail governor and inspector general Norbert Labbe of the provincial police

Labbe, who directed police operations throughout the disturbances was acting governor of the jail last year while Lesage was on leave of absence The prisoners rioted in protest at the food they had been getting but they shouted also they wanted 'Labbe, not Lesage'

Rivard said Monday those responsible for the riot would be punished according to law'

Indians Face Old "Yankee Stadium" Jinx as Series Opens

Lopez Names Gromek As Surprise Starter

BY JOE REICHLER

Can Cleveland's vaunted big four, rated the most formidable pitching staff in baseball, continue it's iron man role?

Will Bob Feller, Bob Lemon, Early Wynn and Mike Garcia, doing double duty, be able to finish strong, pitching at this workhorse pace?

Time will tell, of course, but based on last year's results, the answer is "no."

A year ago, the big four carried the light-hitting Indnans all the way until mid-September. Starting and relieving, it finally broke down under the stretch run burden despite the 20 or more victories racked up by Feller, Wynn and Garcia.

The same four are working at a more killing pace this season In Cleveland's 19 games, Feller, Lemon, Wynn and Garcia have started all but one. They've also been used in relief four times. Their overall record is 10-8. Last year, none of the big four was summoned in relief of a faltering mate until the Indians' 22nd game.

Used In Relief

Manager Al Lopez has been forced to use his big guns in relief because Lou Brissie, his No. 1 relief artist, has been slow getting started. Bob Chakales his No. 2 reliefer, has been thumped for eight hits and seven runs in 5 2/3 innings.

Here in Yankee Stadium tonight, Wednesday and Thursday, the Indians' first 1952 eastern swing succeeds or fails.

Monday's 4-2 victory for a sweep of the two-game Boston series was the first really good news for Cleveland fans since the Tribe came east a week ago In both games the Indians came from behind, and the 10-inning triumph Monday moved them to within a game of Boston's Red Sox, who are still at the top.

Two out of three against the world champions would mean the Tribe's initial trip east would be a victorious one. It's been a flop the past three seasons.

Smiling Steve Gromek, the Hamtrack, Mich. righthander, is the surprise choice of Manager Al Lopez to lead off against the Yanks

Gromek, in his 12th season with Cleveland, isn't one of the famed "big four," but Lopez says he likes Steve "because he puts the all over the plate—makes them hit at it."

Gromek has a lifetime record of 11 victories and six losses against the Yanks. Every other Tribe hurler has lost more than he's won against New York

Mike Garcia will hurl Wednesday afternoon, and Bob Feller will go for Cleveland Thursday afternoon. Garcia orignally was slated to pitch tonight, but he worked three innings of relief Sunday—a game in which Gromek also hurled relief—an inning and one-third.

Manager Casey Stengel has saved his three aces for the Tribe—Allie Reynolds, Ed Lopat and Vic Raschi. Stengel leads with Reynolds who beat Cleveland five times last season. Three times Allie shut out the Tribe, once on a no-hitter.

Hegan Returns

Catcher Jim Hegan, out of the lineup since Tuesday with a sprained ankle will be backstopping for Cleveland again tonight. But the Tribe's slugging centerfielder, Larry Doby, may not be much help in Cleveland's attempt to break the jinx of Yankee Stadium where they won only one of 11 in 1951.

Doby was given a complete physical examination by two specialists in Cleveland, and they found nothing basically wrong with him. His thigh muscles—a source of recurring trouble for him—are a little tighter than average, the specialists said. That means he should warm up longer than most players before putting any undue strain on his legs, the doctors said. Doby flew rejoined the club Monday night.

Lopez had to use Wynn in relief of Lemon Monday and the move paid off as the Indians came from behind to defeat the Boston Red Sox, 4-2, in 10 innings. Wynn, who started and was knocked out Sunday, yielded one run against in three innings and was credited with his fourth victory against one defeat.

A tenth-inning home run by Bobby Avila followed by successive triples by Al Rosen and Ray Boone, produced three Tribe runs, snapped a 1-1 deadlock and hung the season's first defeat on Mel Parnell

Righthander Frank Shea and outfielder Archie Wilson, obtained via trade from the New York Yankees Saturday, teamed up to give the Washington Senators a 13-1 victory over the skidding St. Louis Browns in the only night activity in the major leagues.

Shea surrendered one run before retiring in the eighth inning because of a cramped finger to register his first victory.Wilson, who collected five hits Sunday, rapped a double and two singles and drove in five runs to lead the Senators' attack against starter Ned Garver and two relievers

Giants Win Again

New York's Giants maintained their slim half-game margin over the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National League, making use of their four hits to nip the Chicago Cubs, 3-2. Wes Westrum's two-run homer and Bobby Thomson's run-scoring triple, plus the brilliant relief pitching of Monte Kennedy, earned the Giants their seventh straight victory.

Ralph Branca limited Pittsburgh to four hits as Andy Pafko and Gil Hodges paced the Dodgers to a 5-1 victory with home runs. The game was halted at the end of eight innings by rain. It was the Pirates' fifth straight loss and the 15th in the last 16 games.

All other teams were not scheduled.

Raffensberger Faces Roe in Opener; Cincy Eyes Second Place

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati's surprising Reds get a chance tonight to move within a whisker of second place in the National League.

They'll open a two game night series against the Brooklyn Dodgers and a victory tonight would put them right on the heels of the Brooks. The pitchers are expected to be a pair of tried veterans of major league baseball competition—Ken Raffensberger for the Reds and Preacher Roe for the Dodgers.

Raffensberger has a 3-1 record while Roe has three straight victories without a defeat.

The showing of the Reds thus far had shocked a lot of the National Leaguers.

They made a lot of hay against Pittsburgh but when New York moved in and took two straight games a lot of the fans figured the honeymoon had ended. Instead, however, the Redlegs bounced back to take two of three from Boston and two straight from Philadelphia.

"It just goes to show how much spirit and hustle can pay off," said Manager Luke Sewell during Monday's day off.

"I don't know where we'll finish," he continued. "We may dive down to sixth or we could land in the first division. But in either case we'll cause any of them plenty of trouble."

The particular bright spots of the Reds' play thus far has been the sharp infield play and the hitting of Ted Kluszewski and Hank Edwards.

Bobby Adams at third and Grady Hatton at second have backed up sensational fielding by Roy McMillan at short to block off a lot of enemy hits. Kluszewski who at this time last year could hardly hit his weight is batting .361 while Edwards is at 394.

Kluszewski also is leading the league in runs batted in and both he and Edwards have three homers.

HARNESS DRIVER DIES

GOSHEN, N. Y. (AP)—George N Walsh, 74, veteran harness race driver, trainer and timer, died Monday at Aiken, S C, it was disclosed here. Walsh, who has a home here, retired from active harness racing but has been official timer at the Goshen tracks for the past 10 years.

Irish, Epworth, Brethren Win Openers In Y Church League

St Mary, Epworth Methodist and Church of the Brethren rolled to wins in the opening session of the YMCA Church Softball League Monday night at Garfield Park

Church of the Brethren walloped Trinity Baptist, 16-6, Epworth rolled over Greenwood, 10-0, and St Mary edged Wesley Methodist, 4-3.

In the opening game of the night, the Irish pushed across a run in the bottom of the seventh to edge the scrappy Wesley crew They had tied the count at 3-all with a single tally in the sixth Ekey, Wesley hurler, allowed only four hits over the seven-inning route His downfall was caused by successive singles in the last frame by two Irish pinch-hitters, Irvin and Fazio. Don Moran, winning pitcher, gave up six bingles.

Howard Gilbert, Epworth pitcher, turned in the hurling gem of the evening when he shut out the Greenwood nine with a single hit Dick Peterman ruined the no-hit bid with a clean single in the fifth inning Meanwhile, the Epworth batters were pounding out 12 hits good for 10 runs. Gilbert blasted a two-run homer in the fourth and a single in the second. Poorman collected three hits in four trips to the plate for the winners.

Church of the Brethren broke loose for nine runs in the second inning in its 16-6 romp over Trinity. The winners, picking up only 11 hits, were aided by five errors by the losers. Gamble collected three or four for the winners while Colby paced the Trinity crew with two hits in two attempts

Robb Quits Post As NL Umpire

Refuses To Say Whether Recent Fine Was Reason

CINCINNATI (AP)—"The mystery of the resignation of Umpire Scotty Robb" was the National League's "best seller" today.

Robb, a Senior Loop arbiter since 1947, sent League President Warren Giles a terse note Monday that he was quitting "as of today."

Neither he nor Giles offered any explanation but the gossip immediately went back to the night of April 22 when Robb and Manager Eddie Stanky of the St Louis Cards got into a ruckus in a game here because Robb had ordered Solly Hemus of the Cardinals out of a game

They did some shoving around of each other and Giles happened to be in Crosley Field to see it.

The next day Stanky was fined $50, Hemus $25 and Giles said Robb was "disciplined" and fined a sum "much greater than the combined fines of the players"

Everything seemed to be reasonably peaceful after that until Robb's sudden resignation.

As far as could be determined no major league baseball umpire ever quit his job during the season as abruptly as Robb.

Statements issued by both Giles and Robb did little to clear the mystery of why the arbiter suddenly decided to give up his job—just after he had finished working a series here

Giles said:

"Robb is a splendid gentleman and I told him we would like to have him continue as a member of the staff if he felt he could work efficiently. Since he feels there is an existing situation which prevents this, we accept his resignation."

Robb said:

"My resignation as a National League umpire speaks for itself There is absolutely nothing more I will say. As far as I am concerned, the matter is a closed book."

The umpire refused to comment on the punishment that was given him as a result of the Stanky incident.

At St. Louis, Stanky expressed regret over Robb's resignation and said "we were as close as a player and an umpire can get in baseball and the incident between us didn't affect that friendship"

Davey Slight Favorite To Whip Chico Vejar

CHICAGO (AP)—Undefeated Chuck Davey, who is aiming for the world's welterweight title to go with his Master's Degree from Michigna State, is a slight favorite to whip sensational Chico Vejar of New York University Wednesday night.

The Chicago Stadium scrap, to be televised and broadcast coast-to-coast (9 p.m. EST) has enough natural background to stand on its own two feet Vejar, a fast, strong puncher who has won 41 out of 42 bouts and scored 24 knockouts vs. Davey, a dancing, busy-fisted southpaw who has never been beaten in 32 fights and has kayoed 22 foes.

Robinson Seeks Triple Title, Signs To Fight Maxim

NEW YORK (AP)—Does Sugar Ray Robinson rate with super champs like Bob Fitzsimmons and Henry Armstrong?

Boxing fans will get the answer June 25, at Yankee Stadium when Robinson, former welterweight champ and current middleweight king, gets a crack at Joey Maxim's light heavyweight crown in a 15-round bout.

If Robinson succeeds, he will become the third man in history to hold three division championships Fitz won the middle, heavy and light heavy in that order. Hammering Henry held the feather, light and welter titles simultaneously

Robinson accepted the Maxim match Monday, according to Jim Norris, International Boxing Club president. Both fighters are due to show up today to sign an official contract before the New York State Athletic Commission.

Tourists are welcome in American Samoa, provided they have round-trip tickets. Visitors who plan to stay are asked for proof of financial responsibility.

Galion, Bucyrus Tangle In Finals of Diamond Tourney

GALION—The finals of the sectional high school baseball tournament, will see the Galion High School Tigers meet the Bucyrus Redmen Wednesday at 4 p.m., at Heise Park field.

The two teams won their games Monday in the semi-finals. Galion defeated the Mansfield Tygers in a close game, 7-6, and Shelby lost to Bucyrus, 3-1.

The winner of the finals, Wednesday, will play Toledo Woodward at Findlay College, Saturday in the district finals.

Bill Enders was the winning pitcher in the Galion-Mansfield game. Randall Vance started for Galion, and Enders pitched the last two and one-third innings

"Satchel" Wright, Mansfield pitcher, struck out nine Galion men, while Vance had three strikeouts, and Enders, one. Vance had one base on balls, and Wright allowed five.

Galion was behind 6-5 with two men out in the seventh and final inning, with Scherer on first base. Rannow, batting for Holtenroth, hit a single. Dougherty followed with another single to score Scherer, and Beach singled to bring in Rannow.

In the Bucyrus-Shelby fray, Dan Bumstead pitched a no-hit game, struck out 10, and walked three. Adkins was the starting pitcher for Shelby, and Riley pitched six and two-thirds innings, striking out six, walked two, and allowing one hit. Adkins allowed two hits and walked one.

Colonels Near Top After 1-0 Shutout

By The Associated Press

Louisville climbed to within 1½ games of league-leading Milwaukee Monday night by blanking Minneapolis 1-0 behind young Russ Kemmerer's five-hitter.

Milwaukee's engagement at Columbus was rained out and will be played at a later date

Al Corwin, who helped spark the New York Giants' pennant drive late last season, yields only three hits in the six innings he worked at Louisville and was tagged with the loss. He was yanked for a pinch-hitter in the seventh when the Millers got the tying run on second with Ray Katt's double.

Kemmerer, up from Class "B" ball, pitched out of this trouble and did the same in the eighth.

The Kansas City Blues walloped Toledo 13-7 with an outpouring of 18 hits that boosted their total to 69 for the last five games. Don Bollweg got four blows and Bob Marquis and Bill Skowron hammered home runs.

Indianapolis and St. Paul played a scoreless five innings before the game was called on account of rain.

NCAA Starts Probe Of Athletic Setup At Kentucky

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The inquiring eye of the National Collegiate Athletic Association was cast today toward the University of Kentucky, whose athletic program has been described by a New York judge as a commercial enterprise.

NCAA President Hugh Willett said machinery has been set in motion to determine whether Kentucky was in violation of the constitution and by-laws of the association.

The school itself asked for a full investigation.

Judge Saul Streit prompted the inquiry when he dealt suspended sentences to three former Kentucky cage stars. The three—placed on indefinite probation—were Alex Groza, Ralph Beard and Dale Barnstable.

Judge Streit said, "The university and the basketball coach (Adolph Rupp) must share the responsibility with the fixers for corrupting and demoralizing these defendants."

President H. L. Donovan of the university said the school hoped to reply late today to the judge's charges. He also sent telegrams to the NCAA, the Southeastern Conference and the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools asking a full investigation.

Dr. Donovan, in his letter asking the three-way investigation, requested representatives check the truth of Judge Streit's charges and any violation of rules by the university.

"The integrity not only of Coach Rupp, but of administrative officials, trustees, alumni, faculty and many Kentucklans has been attacked," Dr. Donovan declared.

Fans Plan Sendoff For Bob Kennedy

CLEVELAND (AP) — Bob Kennedy, the Cleveland Indians' popular outfielder who has been recalled by the Marine Corps, will get a rousing sendoff just before the night game with the Boston Red Sox at Cleveland Stadium May 20.

After the series with Boston winds up May 22, Kennedy will leave the Tribe to straighten up his personal affairs before returning to active duty in the Marine Air Corps at Jacksonville, Fla., May 29.

Now approaching his 32nd birthday, Kennedy may be making his last appearance in a baseball uniform. His recall by the Marines will keep him in service for at least 17 months.

DRIVER ESCAPES INJURY

UPPER SANDUSKY—The lone occupant of a Michigan automobile escaped injury shortly after noon Monday when the vehicle he was driving failed to negotiate the turn on Route 23 at the intersection of Route 30-N at the northwest edge of Upper Sandusky. The southbound auto ran across the intersection and crashed into fuel pumps in front of the Graf-miller Sohio Station. One pump was shorn completely off its base and tossed about 15 feet south, and the auto damaged the second pump. Driver of the auto was James Alderman of Detroit, Mich.

Rubbish Truck Takes Fire To Fire Department

Generally fire departments go to fires, but a reversal of the common procedure occurred in Marion Monday.

A city-owned rubbish truck arrived at the Central fire station on S. Prospect St. at 2:12 p.m. when the driver, Joseph Haubert of 562 Bartram Ave., noticed hot ashes burning in the truck bed. An engine truck was driven a few yards from the station to the street, the fire was put out, and the engine returned to its position, to complete one of the shortest runs in the history of the department. No damage resulted to the truck.

Two other fires Monday were reported by Chief Owen Slfritt. A grass fire occurred at 12:15 p. m. in a lot on Grand St. north of Adams St., and rubbish was reported on fire about 5:45 p. m. at 141 S. Prospect St. No damage was reported in either case. Both fires were answered by firemen from the Central station.

PLANE CRASH KILLS 11

OSLO, Norway (AP)—A Chartered Norwegian transport plane, bringing 25 sailors home from an Antarctic whaling expedition crashed and burned before dawn today in the rugged, wooded Telemark district 150 miles southwest of Oslo. Police reported 11 people —nine passengers and two crewmen—were killed and 10 others injured.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (INS)—The stock market turned in another apathetic performance today with minor price gains in the majority.

Trading continued to move along at a snail's pace and the major interest in Wall Street boardrooms was whether today's turnover would match Monday's two-and-one-half year record low volume. For the first hour, it was neck and neck with today's transactions of 190,000 shares comparing with 170,000 yesterday.

This increase incidentally, was due to heavy dealings in Hilton Hotels in which 12,000 shares changed hands at its previous close of 14¾.

Among the old-line leaders, U.S. Steel was unchanged; General Motors up ⅛; Chrysler up ¼; Standard Oil of New Jersey off ⅛; Union Carbide up ⅛; and General Electric off ⅛.

In the rails, Northern Pacific was up ⅛; Southern Pacific off ⅝; and Canadian Pacific unchanged.

The large number of stocks selling ex-dividend today threw the Dow-Jones industrial average out of kelter. At 11 a.m. it was off 42 cents, but since ex-dividends accounted for 67 cents, actually the index was higher. The rails were off seven cents; and the utilities were up four cents.

I AM A LITTLE BUSINESS MAN!

I operate my own business. I buy my papers from The Marion Star at wholesale and resell them to my customers at retail. The difference is my profit and working capital.

A few of my customers are inclined to ask me to call back and back for my money. I become discourgaed in my first business enterprise. So help me by paying each Saturday, which is my regular collection day.

May Close Third Sohio Refinery

CLEVELAND (AP)—Standard Oil Co. of Ohio faced the prospect of closing another refinery here today if the CIO Oil Workers union maintains its picket lines.

Pickets appeared Monday night at Sohio's No. 2 refinery here which produces lubricating oils. Plant officials said all employes stayed on their jobs, but indicated the workers would not report today if the pickets remain.

Already down are two of the company's four gasoline refineries, one here and one at Toledo. Its gasoline refineries in Latonia, Ky., and Lima, O., still were operating.

In Toledo, besides the Sohio refinery, the strike has closed the Detroit Southern Pipe Line Co., bulk distributing plants of Sinclair, Cities Service and the Socony-Vacuum Co., an industrial grease refinery owned by Fiske Brothers Co. and gasoline refineries run by the Pure Oil and Gulf oil firms.

Virginia Finally Gives Votes to Women

RICHMOND, Va. (UP)—Women have been voting in Virginia for years but it's been without the approval of the state.

This year a band of 10 bachelors in the Virginia General Assembly got together and pushed through a resolution ratifying the women's suffrage amendment to the United States Constitution.

Only one legislator was against it. An elderly delegate, Albert O. Boschen, told his colleagues he was against the crazy idea back in 1920 and the experience of 32 years hadn't changed his mind a bit.

SHERIFF'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

Court of Common Pleas, Marion County, Ohio. Case No. 31226.

Edwin K. Smith, Plaintiff, vs. Delbert Darnell, et al., Defendants.

In pursuance of an Order of Sale issued from said Court to me directed in the above entitled action, I will expose to sale, at public auction, at the East door of the Court House in Marion, Marion County, Ohio, on Saturday the 7th day of June, 1952, at 10:00 o'clock A.M., the following described real estate, situate in the County of Marion and State of Ohio, and in the City of Marion to-wit:

No, Miss Fluff This fur coat was not a gift to you It was a temporary substitute for your mink
But I thought it was compensation for not wearing my mink
It was merely to disassociate the firm from a notorious fur
If you turn it back to the furrier Mr Wicker, you'll have the same problem again
After the election this fall, mink will be as dead as a mummy! There'll be something else but it won't be fur coats.
